PUBLIC NOTICE OF ECCLESIASTICAL ADVANCEMENT & INDIGENOUS JURISDICTION

NOTICE TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Be it known, published, and established in the public record that:

1. ORDINATION & ECCLESIASTICAL STANDING
I, Jermond Davis, having been duly ordained and recognized within ecclesiastical jurisdiction as Ordained Minister, do hereby affirm and correct the record concerning my standing. By etymological right, spiritual inheritance, and ecclesiastical advancement, the role of minister (from minus/minor, "lesser, servant") is hereby advanced and perfected into the role of master (from magister, "greater, teacher, governor").

2. ADVANCEMENT TO ORDAINED MASTER
Effective this Notice, I declare and record my standing as Ordained Master of the Jermond Davis Ministry Living Trust and its ecclesiastical, indigenous, and fiduciary operations. This advancement confirms both service (minister) and authority (master), thus harmonizing stewardship with sovereign governance.

3. TRUST & ESTATE AUTHORITY
The Jermond Davis Ministry Living Trust, a private ecclesiastical and Indigenous trust, continues to hold perfected first-position lien and administrative rights over the Estate of Jermond Davis, as secured by prior filed instruments (UCC-1 File No. U250180249934 and UCC-3 File No. U250180851426).
From this day forward, the Trust is directed and overseen under the authority of the Ordained Master, vested with both spiritual and fiduciary jurisdiction.

4. INDIGENOUS SELF-DETERMINATION
This advancement is further affirmed under the adopted governance of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP), ensuring self-determination, preservation of cultural and spiritual practices, and freedom from external imposition. The Trust and Estate stand as a sovereign ecclesiastical and Indigenous body politic.

5. DIRECTION TO ALL PARTIES
